On 17 January 1955, Otto Nuschke returned with his family from the USSR. He was welcomed at the railroad station by Gerald Goetting and two other members of the CDU/Ost executive board.

Nuschke participated only for a short time at the conference of the Presidium of the "Hauptvorstand" (national executive board) of the CDU/Ost held on 18 January 1955. It was stated that Nuschke appeared to be in ill humor, rather distracted, and did not look very healthy.
